

Principle #1

Everything I have is God's (Matthew 25:14-30)

Principle #2

It's my responsibility to be a good steward (Matthew 25:14-30)

Principle #3

How I manage my money reflects my heart (Matthew 25:14-30)

Principle #4

A little foresight goes a long way
(Luke 16:3-4)

Principle #5

God expects me to be shrewd with my money (Luke 16:8)

Principle #6

I should use my money to influence people for Christ (Luke 16:9)

Principle #7

How I handle a little shows how I would handle a lot (Luke 16:10)

Principle #8

God rewards my faithful stewardship
(Luke 16:11-12)

Principle #9

I can't (and won't) serve God if money is my idol (Luke 16:13)

Principle #10

Contentment is the key to the fullness of God's blessing (1 Timothy 6:6-8)

Principle #11

A love of money leads to no good
(1 Timothy 6:9-10)

Principle #12

To whom much is given, much is expected (1 Timothy 6:17-19)

Principle #13

The Bible discourages debt, but doesn't prohibit it (Proverbs 22:7)

Principle #14

Unnecessary debt is often foolish and sometimes wrong (James 4:13-16)

Principle #15

If I borrow at all, I should do so cautiously and wisely (Proverbs 21:5)

Principle #16

Generosity is a blessing that God blesses
(2 Corinthians 9:6, 10-11)

Principle #17

God expects me to tithe to my church
(Malachi 3:8-10)

Principle #18

God gives so that I can too
(2 Corinthians 9:7-10)
