

MISSIONS CONVICTIONS

The Driving Mission Convictions of Coram Deo Bible Church

We exist to glorify God by fulfilling Christ's Great Commission to go and make disciples in the spirit of Christ's Great Commandment. The following convictions about God, His Word, and our church drive our strategy as we seek to be faithful in using the resources He gives us to reach His nations for His glory.

1. We believe that all of scripture, from Genesis to Revelation, shows God revealing himself to the nations
2. We believe that missions is how we fulfill the Great Commission mandate to disciple all nations
3. We believe that every believer has a role in fulfilling the Great Commission
4. We believe that in every culture, the expression of the bride of Christ is the local church
5. We believe that missions is temporary, therefore we must do all that we can to reach the nations before Jesus returns
6. Our passion as a church is for training pastors and planting churches
7. Our priority in missions is placed on church planting among unreached peoples
8. Our short-term mission trips should serve to help people understand and live out their role in the Great Commission
9. Our sent missionaries must have a robust ecclesiology and theology of suffering; and a commitment to language and culture acquisition, or they risk doing more harm than good
10. Our church is called to be actively engaged in training, sending, supporting and caring for its members who are serving cross-culturally
